

Legacy KAP Privacy Policy

This privacy notice discloses the privacy practices for AEH Legacy Consulting, LLC. This privacy notice applies solely to information collected by this website. It will notify you of the following:

1. What personally identifiable information is collected from you through the website, how it is used and with whom access to your data may be shared
2. What choices are available to you regarding the use of your data
3. The security procedures in place to protect against the misuse of your data
4. How you can correct any inaccuracies in the information

Information Collection, Use, and Sharing

We are the sole owners of the information collected on this site. We only have access to/collect information that you voluntarily give us via email or other direct contact from you. We will not sell or rent this information to anyone.

We will use your information to respond to you, regarding the reason you contacted us. We will not share your information with any third party outside of our organization, other than as necessary to fulfill your request.

Unless you ask us not to, we may contact you via email in the future to tell you about specials, new products or services, or changes to this privacy policy.

Your Access to and Control Over Information

You may opt out of any future contacts from us at any time. You can do the following at any time by contacting us via the email address or phone number given on our website:

- See what data we have about you (if any)
- Change/correct any data we have about you
- Have us delete any data we have about you
- Express any concern you have about our use of your data

Security

We take precautions to protect your information. When you submit sensitive information via the website, your information is protected both online and offline.

Wherever we collect sensitive information (such as credit card data), that information is encrypted and transmitted to us in a secure way. You can verify this by looking for a lock icon in the address bar and looking for "https" at the beginning of the address of the Web page.

While we use encryption to protect sensitive information transmitted online, we also protect your information offline. Only employees who need the information to perform a specific job (for example, billing or customer service) are granted access to personally identifiable information. The computers/servers in which we store personally identifiable information are kept in a secure environment.

Public Access to the Database

This website stores all of your information in an encrypted database on secure, private servers. However, basic information pertaining to your scored certificates is available to be queried by the public. This includes your first and last name, exam date and the name of the employer that administered the exam. These records will be available to the public in perpetuity unless you contact us via email and specifically request the suppression of your public records. We cannot remove your information from our private database for historical purposes, however we can prevent your data from being publicly available on our website.

Requests regarding the handling of your data should be submitted in writing via <https://aehlegacy.com>
